CAMERON HUGHES

Lot 101 Chardonnay

2007, Russian River Valley, Sonoma County

Ripe aromas of fig, pear and quince rise up to greet you. On the palate is ripe Crenshaw melon, apple tart flavors and a cream bright beam of honeyed acidity with hints of beeswax. It finishes deliciously bright with hints of toasty hazelnut and beeswax.This is the sister wine to Lot 91 but considerably different in that is far more new oak and is made in a richer, lusher style.
