CAMERON HUGHES
Lot 122 Merlot
2006, Los Carneros

Taste: Beautifully rich and well-balanced, this merlot from the cooler climate of Carneros features pretty aromas of pomegranate, clove spice, and roasted coffee with toasty/chocolately notes in the background. On the palate the wine is supple and polished with sumptuous flavors of spicy black cherry, sweet vanilla, earth and tobacco. Nice, lingering finish with soft tannins and good length. This wine has remarkable concentration and length along with excellent forward fruit and layers of complexity, in part due to the 13% syrah blended in.

Cameron Confidential: Last summer we were invited to visit one of the facilities in a recently formed marketing group for several wineries in the Napa/Sonoma area. There we were shown about 10 wines and suffice it to say we bought everything they put in front of us, ranging from Carneros Pinot Noir and Chardonnay to Atlas Peak Cabernet to Alexander Valley Meritage. EVERYTHING we bought were finished bottling blend, simply excess wines above and beyond where they saw their sales projections and all ready to go right into the bottle. Go into the bottle they did this Fall.
